

Movement for Peace

Country: Spain

Period: Since 1983

Activity: The Movement for Peace (MPDL) is an organisation that aspires to global peace, where the full fulfilment of human rights, democratic governance, equality and solidarity between people is ensured. MPDL works from a rights approach to promote the culture of peace through peace studies research, prevention and action in front of all types of violence.

Objectives

Contributing to the spread of Peace Culture, throughout actions both at national and international level.

Protecting human rights.

Fighting social injustice.

Description

MPDL works at national level in the fields of migration, social and laboral assistance and educational intervention.

At international level, MPDL carries out development projects in Africa, Latin America and the Middle East.

MPDL organises a diverse range of activities to raise awareness and foster mobilization to prevent violence and strengthen the culture of peace.

Beneficiaries

Vary in accordance to the project.

GOAL 2: Reinforce education and resilience at local level

(59) Strengthen local capacities for violent extremisms prevention and community resilience to violent extremism. In order to identify, manage and leverage the local partnerships needed to prevent violent extremism, CSOs must analyse local contexts to understand them, conduct trust-building processes with partners and capacity development of endogenous structures.