

Peace Action, Training and Research Institute of Romania (PATRIR)

Country: Romania

Organisation responsible: PATRIR

Period: Since 2001

Activity: PATRIR is a non-governmental, non-profit, politically independent organization in Cluj-Napoca, Romania. The institute has as basic principles non-violence, conflict transformation, the promotion of human rights through information and awareness raising by solutions oriented, social, political and economic analysis.

Objectives

Transforming the way the world deals with conflicts, working from the local to the global levels in partnership with communities, countries, and national and international organisations to make peacebuilding and the constructive transformation of conflicts the basis for sustainable peace.

Mobilizing and engaging citizens, governments, and national and international organisations to overcome all forms of direct, structural and cultural violence, and to join together to build direct, structural and cultural peace.

Description

PATRIR has diverse operational capabilities from research to training, direct engagement, peace operations, awareness raising, mobilization, and building of multistakeholder partnerships and alliances to prevent violence. It works upon request from conflict parties and local, national and international organisations and agencies to support violence prevention, peacebuilding, mediation and post-war recovery. It also offers training in peacebuilding.

Beneficiaries

Governments, IGOs, NGOs, experts, students.

GOAL 1: Monitor the drivers and impact of all forms of violent extremism

(53) Promote agreements with the academia and think tanks to promote critical research on the causes conducive to and drivers of ALL violent extremists.