PeaceW@men

Objectives

Ensuring that women's rights and participation are not disregarded in international peace and security efforts.

Promoting a progressive gender-perspective in preventing conflict and creating peace through women's full and equal participation.

Bridging global and local efforts to implement a holistic and transformative Women, Peace and Security Agenda.

Description

Based in the New York Office of WILPF, PeaceWomen facilitates monitoring of the United Nations system, with a particular focus on the Women, Peace and Security agenda, including resolutions 1325, 1820, 1888, 1889, 1960, 2106, and 2122, which recognise the importance of acknowledging and integrating women's experience into issues of peace and security.

Beneficiaries

UN Security Council, member states, UN and civil society actors

GOAL 5: Promote gender justice and expose gender specificities

(87) Mainstream gender perspectives across efforts to prevent all forms of violent extremisms, in accordance to the UN Resolution 1325. Gender analysis of security-related decisions and interventions are needed to recognize new dimensions of violent extremism and how to prevent it.
